Marc Cunningham bio and pre-speaking introduction:

Marc grew up in the real estate world and spent many years pulling weeds, painting walls, showing properties, and collecting rents for Grace Property Management, the company his father founded in 1978.

Today, from a platform of managing 1,000 rental properties, Grace Management helps people buy, sell, invest, flip, collect rent, evict, and have fun doing it!

If you are more impressed with initials after a name - Marc is the President of Grace Property Management & Real Estate, holds a degree in Real Estate & Finance, has taught CE classes in over 20 states, is regularly featured in national real estate publications, and holds multiple designations and awards, including being named the national property manager of the year.

Marc lives in Loveland, CO, where he lives his failed childhood sports dreams - through his four children.
