DREI, MBA, CSP, ABR, CRS, GRI, Green, SFR, PSA

Chandra Hall is a third generation Realtor® and has been serving buyers and sellers in residential real estate since 1997. She is the broker owner of a real estate company in Colorado Springs, CO. Starting college at age 16, she completed a Bachelor of Science degree in International Business in 1995 and earned her Master of Business Administration degree in 2000. Chandra has had the honor of teaching Realtors in every state in the nation while working in several aspects of real estate, including residential resale, land development and new home building.

Chandra was first introduced to the Ninja Selling system through the Certified Residential Specialist designation and as a Certified CRS Instructor and a Certified Master Ninja Instructor; she has been teaching agents all over the nation how to build better businesses and lives since 2007.

Chandra's mission is to be a facilitator of awareness and change by providing top insights and guidance to companies and individuals who are committed to peak performance. Born an identical twin, Chandra appreciates the power of individual differences. She uses this belief to help others identify their natural abilities and create more of what they desire both personally and professionally.

Chandra loves calling beautiful Colorado Springs, CO home and feels fortunate to be able to spend time with her family who also live in Colorado Springs. Her best friend is her identical twin sister Tamara and she loves spending time with her furry children, two Shih Tzu dogs named Danger and Diva. She loves to read, dance, and listen to live music. Chandra continues her personal and professional growth through ongoing educational opportunities and is committed to cultivating relationships with her friends and Realtor® network around the country.
