

Pamela H. Ermen

Speaker Biography

Pamela Ermen has spent her entire business career in real estate, obtaining her license at the age of 18! Entering a full time management career by the age of 24, she has spent 25 years coaching individual agents, teams and companies to their highest levels of productivity.

Pam has accomplished highly successful management careers in both a privately owned and franchised branded business model, and has authored two successful training series specific to business planning and the dynamic growth of real estate teams.

Being selected as Real Estate Educator of the Year in her home state is just one of her career milestones, in addition to instructing for numerous state GRI programs and joining the cadre of national (CRS) Certified Residential Specialist program.

Please help us to welcome...Pamela Ermen

National Instructor

▪

Speaker

▪

Real Estate Coach