

Melanie McLane

Biography

Melanie McLane is a second-generation REALTOR® who is an appraiser, broker, and educator. A graduate of Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, she holds the following designations and certifications: ABR, CRB, CRS, EPRO, GREEN, GRI, RAA, RSPS, PSA, SRES, and SRS. She is also certified as a distance instructor (CDEI) and is an Appraiser Qualifications Board-approved USPAP (Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice) instructor. She has written numerous courses, both for her own use and as works for hire for other educational companies. Additionally, she served as a subject matter expert/author for the Pricing Strategy Advisor course for the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), as well as for other NAR courses, including RSPS.

She has served as President of her local association, the West Branch Valley Association of REALTORS®, and as District Vice President for the Pennsylvania Association of REALTORS® for two terms. Furthermore, she has participated in various NAR committees, task forces, and forums. In 2008, she was inducted into the REBAC Hall of Fame as an instructor, and in 2012, she was named RSPS of the Year for her contributions to the RSPS course. She has also been honored by her local association with the REALTOR® of the Year award (twice, in 2004 and again in 2017), the "Spirit Award," and the "Outstanding Achievement Award." In 2018, the Pennsylvania Association of REALTORS® named her REALTOR® of the Year. She continues to list, sell, and appraise properties, as well as teach. In her free time, she enjoys gardening and spending time with her grandchildren.

Short Version

Real estate agent, broker, and appraiser educator, Melanie J. McLane has decades of experience in all facets of real estate education: course development to presentation. She's a REBAC Hall of Fame trainer, the 2012 RSPS of the Year, and was recently named Pennsylvania's REALTOR® of the Year. In addition, Melanie is a certified appraiser, licensed associate broker, and certified USPAP instructor. Melanie has owned and operated a brokerage, taught everything from pre-licensing to designation courses, and continues to practice as both an appraiser and an associate broker. In addition to her own courses, Melanie is certified to present most of the National Association of REALTORS®' REBI & REBAC courses - several of which she's authored, co-authored or revised. Melanie currently serves as a Director for the National Association of REALTORS®
