

MAURA NEILL

BIOGRAPHY

Maura Neill (ABR, AHWD, C2EX, CRS, e-PRO, GRI, MRP, PSA, MA) is a second-generation REALTOR® who combines her love for the industry with her passion for education. Before getting into the real estate business in 2001, Maura taught at Florida State University and University of Phoenix.

As an active agent with RE/MAX Around Atlanta, Maura leads her team and works closely with buyers and sellers to navigate the real estate process. She currently serves as Georgia REALTORS® Vice President of Member & Public Services for 2025. Alongside her husband, Ben, Maura runs a thriving real estate business while also serving as a sought-after speaker and instructor.

Her dedication to policy, advocacy, and REALTOR® engagement is evident through her extensive volunteer work at the local, state, and national levels. In 2021, Maura served on the NAR Leadership Team as President Charlie Oppler's Public and Federal Issues Liaison. A recognized leader in RPAC and advocacy, Maura is a Platinum "R" RPAC investor, a member of the RPAC President's Circle, and was inducted into the NAR RPAC Hall of Fame at the $50k level in 2022.

Among her numerous accolades are the 2020 CRS National President's Award and the 2015 Atlanta REALTOR® of the Year honor. Maura is a proud graduate of both the 2009 GAR Leadership Academy and the 2016 NAR Leadership Academy.

Residing in Sandy Springs, Georgia, Maura and Ben share their home with their beloved Weimaraner, Luna.

INTRODUCTION

Maura Neill is a second-generation REALTOR® who combines her love for the industry with her passion for education.

As an active agent with RE/MAX Around Atlanta, Maura leads her team and works closely with buyers and sellers to navigate the real estate process. She currently serves as Georgia REALTORS® Vice President of Member & Public Services for 2025. Alongside her husband, Ben, Maura runs a thriving real estate business while also serving as a sought-after speaker and instructor.

