

BIOGRAPHY

Poet Ali

Short Bio: Poet Ali is a compelling performer and identifiable speaker who inspires people to approach and understand the world from uniquely inspiring perspectives. His performances, presentations and writing focuses on “The Language of Being Human”. He pulls relatable moments from a reservoir of life experience, anecdotal story-telling, and powerful spoken word poetry and believes we should use our gifts as catalysts for self-discovery and the facilitation of human well being. The subjects tackled in his presentations vary, but are always centered around communication and connection.

Long Bio: Poet Ali has crafted a unique brand of impactful, connection driven entertainment that is nothing short of transformational. His TED Talks have been viewed by millions & he’s spoken to over 250,000 people in live settings, in the last 5 years alone. Poet has been invited to share his “Soulosophy” & talents at multiple national & international conferences & his client list includes names like: Sanofi Healthcare, RCA World Cybersecurity Conference, Organon Global Healthcare, Kind Bars, First Up Communications, Hewlett Packard, United Health Care - Blue Cross, Blue Shield, Electives, Bermuda Ministry of Education, CA Dept. Social Services San Diego, Young Professionals Organization Gold Chapter, California Municipal Treasurers Association, Take Stock in Children Florida Chapter, Home Care Aide Council Massachusetts, Hoby World Youth Leadership Conference, Louisville Celebration of Compassion, Boys & Girls Club, USA National Chapter, Killeen Independent School District, Fort Bend Independent School District, and Rachel’s Challenge. As a communications expert, Poet consistently provides powerful tools for self-reflection that have been sought by fortune 500 companies, non-profit organizations, industry leaders in corporate culture, educators & individuals. His work traverses industry & reaches into our humanity at a fundamental level touching upon issues surrounding personal identity & human connection. His unique perspective is shaped from his education, family upbringing, & an immersion in cultures, travel & the arts (all of which he incorporates into his talks). A compelling performer & identifiable speaker who inspires people to approach & understand their problems from unique perspectives, Poet’s performative presentations focus on: identity, human connection, perspective shifts in problem solving, language, culture & self empowerment. His talks are a catalyst for conflict resolution & dialogue. Poet helps us lead with our gifts as catalysts for self-discovery & the facilitation of human well-being. If you are looking to connect deeply with your audience & create an experience they will never forget, you have found the person to do it.

Highlights Bio (Short): Poet has been invited to share his talents on multiple national and international stages and conferences. His TED Talk, "The Most Important Language You Will Ever Learn," has been viewed more than a million times. His client list includes names like: FirstUpio, BlueCross, Blue Shield, Electivesio, Sanofi Pharmaceuticals, Organon, Dan Lubetzky CEO of Kind Bars, Hewlett Packard, Rachel’s Challenge, California Municipal Treasurer’s Association, Lindt Chocolate, National Black Lawyers Society, Franciscan Missionaries of our Healthcare System, Texas Association of School Boards, and many others. He has shared the stage with world renowned acts such as One Republic, Wyclef Jean, Colbie Caillat, and Christina Milian.

Highlights Bio (Long): Poet Ali is a motivational speaker and an Artist of Human Connection. He has been invited to share his talents on multiple national & international stages. Poet’s TED Talks on the language of being human, have been viewed by millions. His thinking has influenced multiple industries and his client list includes names like: RSA Cyber Security Conference, Lindt Chocolate Co., Clorox, Kind Bars, Hewlett Packard, First Up io (worlds first intelligent communications platform), Organon (global health care), HHS San Diego County (Health and Human Services Agency), Rachel’s Challenge (largest school assembly program in the USA) HCAC of Massachusetts (Home Care Aid Council) Dept of Education in Bermuda, California Municipal Treasurers Association, HOBY World Youth Leadership Conference, and YPO. He has opened for acts like One Republic & Christina Milian. Connection is a universal language that transcends boundaries and fosters empathy in a divided world. By understanding the language of connection we can bridge gaps, heal wounds, and weave a tapestry of unity. Poets mission is to create a transformational experience that will be a catalyst for a shift in perspective and creative solution oriented thinking. Poet teaches a framework for success called “The Connection Perspective”, enabling us to understand ourselves from a humanistic perspective, simplifying self-discovery and amplifying success. In this way he opens our hearts and minds, facilitating a deep human connection. He reveals how the idea of "language" goes far beyond a lexicon of words, communicating universal experiences like love, laughter and loneliness -- serving as a portal to cultures, feelings and thoughts that unite us all.

